SSG WINS ASIANINVESTOR 2011 INVESTMENT PERFORMANCE AWARD

Hong Kong, 27 April 2011

SSG Capital Management is pleased to announce that its maiden fund, SSG Capital Partners I, LP, has won the AsianInvestor 2011 Investment Performance Award in the category of Distressed/Special Situations Hedge Funds. The publication announced the winners of the prestigious awards on 27 April 2011. The winners were determined on the basis of performance data, as well as market feedback. SSG Capital Partners I, LP was launched in late 2009 and held its final close in 2010. The fund invests in special situations and distressed debt in Asia Pacific ex-Japan.

Managing Partner and CIO, Edwin Wong, commented: "We are honoured to receive this award recognizing our efforts and investment performance to date, and we want to thank our investors and investee companies for making this possible. This award is particularly meaningful to us and is an endorsement of the fact that our strategy is working and that our hard work is bearing fruit." The fund has made over ten investments since inception and has completely or partially exited a number of investments resulting in cash distributions to investors. "We continue to build on our success and actively pursue further investments across the region this year. In addition, we are keenly focused on managing our existing portfolio and building out our infrastructure in parallel with the growth of the fund."

The AsianInvestor 2011 Investment Performance Award will be given out at the awards dinner on 19 May 2011 at the Conrad Hotel, Hong Kong. For the more information on the awards please visit <http://www.asianinvestor.net/News/254782.day-4-asianinvestor-2011-investment-performance-awards.aspx>.
